

2022 Edmonton Fraud Conference

Speaker Bio

Phil Thibodeau,
Senior Business Development
Specialist, SAS Institute

Phil Thibodeau is a Senior Business Development Specialist and Industry Consultant supporting SAS Canada's Justice and Public Safety teams. Phil is a passionate advocate for advancing and modernizing public safety agencies through continued professional development and leveraging the power of analytics to help organizations increase efficiency and solve critical challenges.

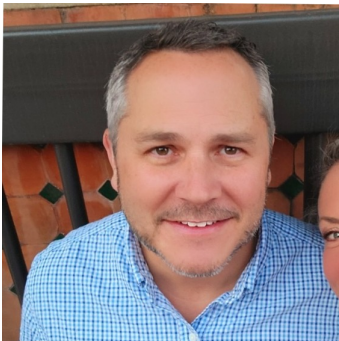

Phil is a former Assistant Commissioner with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police with over 35 years of law enforcement experience. Over Phil's long career, he has worked in a variety of areas such as Serious & Organized Crime, Drug Enforcement, Technology Crime, Financial Crime, National Security and Forensic Science both at the national and international level. He has held a number of senior law enforcement positions including; Director General Criminal Intelligence Service Canada (CISC), Assistant Commissioner Forensic Science and Identifications Services and acting Deputy Commissioner Specialized Policing Services responsible for a broad range of National Police Services including CPIC, National DNA data bank, National Forensic Laboratory Services and Canadian Criminal Real Time Identification Services.

Phil is a former member of the Canadian Association of Chiefs of Police (CACCP) and Association des Directeurs de Police du Quebec (ADPQ) and member of a several interagency committees at the national and international level. Phil holds a Masters Degree in Leadership and Management.

2022 Edmonton Fraud Conference

Speaker Bio

Kevin Harrington,
Senior Policy Advisor
and Industry Consultant

Kevin Harrington is a Senior Policy Advisor and Industry Consultant supporting SAS's Justice and Public Safety team. Kevin is passionate about modernizing public safety agencies by leveraging the power of analytics to help organizations increase efficiency and solve critical problems.

Kevin has over 18 years of experience working in state/federal law enforcement, U.S. Department of Defense, and the Intelligence Community. Immediately prior to joining the SAS team, he served as the Securities Division Director for the North Carolina Department of the Secretary of State. In this role, he led the Securities Division, and was responsible for the oversight and regulation of the securities industry in North Carolina. During this time, Kevin also served as a Special Assistant United States Attorney (SAUSA) with the U.S. Attorney's Offices in North Carolina where he was responsible for investigating and prosecuting securities fraud, racketeering, mortgage fraud, wire fraud, money laundering, tax evasion and other white-collar/financial crimes in federal court.

Prior to joining the Securities Division, Kevin served as a Special Agent with the United States Air Force Office of Special Investigations (AFOSI) where he investigated terrorism, counterintelligence, and criminal matters in the United States and abroad.